DATE: April 2017

TO: Academic & Student Affairs Employees

FROM: District Staff Excellence Awards Team

SUBJECT: 2017 University and District Staff Excellence Awards

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2017 Academic & Student Affairs District Staff Excellence Awards (DSEA). According to our records, you are an employee in this District.

Changes to the program this year bring nomination criteria in line with the University’s four major strategic goals and a total of eight awards will be presented at the University level - two from each goal.

A total of 24 DSEA winners will be chosen from four Districts: Academic & Student Affairs, Academic Health Sciences, Administration, and Hospitals/Clinics with four representing our District. In addition to being acknowledged at the District level, the nominations of selected employees’ will be forwarded for consideration for the University Staff Excellence Awards (USEA). All 24 DSEA recipients will be recognized at a luncheon hosted by President Pershing. The eight USEA recipients will receive a $3,750 honorarium and a personalized plaque. A perpetual plaque with the names of all USEA recipients is displayed in the University Human Resource Management office.

You may nominate anyone in the Academic & Student Affairs District, or any other District, who meets the eligibility criteria. Please indicate which District and which goal the employee is being nominated for. Please see the attached document for criteria and nomination forms.

The deadline for nominations is 5 p.m. on June 20th, 2017.
